Luke 15 The Story of the Lost Son

Jesus told this amazing story that shows us that no matter what we've done in life, at any point you can turn to Him and start again.

"A man had two sons. 12The younger son told his father, 'I want my share of your estate now before you die.' So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons."

13"A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. 14 About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. 15 He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. 16 The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything."

17"When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, 'At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! 18 I will go home to my father and say, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, 19 and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant.'"

20"So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. 21 His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son.'"

22"But his father said to the servants, 'Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet. 23 And kill the calf we have been fattening. We must celebrate with a feast, 24 for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.' So the party began."

The son was welcomed home and celebrated by his father. The father was totally overcome by love for his son that he threw a party.

- The robe symbolized the son was in "right standing" again with the father in spite of all his rubbish decisions.
- The ring would've made the father's mark on official documents. The equivalent of a credit card today.
- The sandals symbolized the son still had all the rights entitled to him as a son. The only people allowed to wear shoes in the house in those days were the family.

FACTSHEET

The Story Continues Luke 15: 25-32

25 Meanwhile, the older son was in the fields working. When he returned home, he heard music and dancing in the house, 26 and he asked one of the servants what was going on. 27 'Your brother is back,' he was told, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf. We are celebrating because of his safe return.'

28 "The older brother was angry and wouldn't go in. His father came out and begged him, 29 but he replied, 'All these years I've slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to. And in all that time you never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends. 30 Yet when this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!'

31 "His father said to him, 'Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours. 32 We had to celebrate this happy day. For your brother was dead and has come back to life! He was lost, but now he is found!'"

The older brother thought that he would please his father by working really hard and doing the right thing. He was angry when the father simply accepted his younger brother back without even punishing him.

Your Takeaway

The point that Jesus is making, in this story, is that God does not love us because of the good things that we do, in fact, He doesn't stop loving us because of the bad things we do. The fact is nothing we can do can stop God's love for us. It's not about what we do, but it's about who we are.
